

I would like to say that what Sinclair Broadcasting is doing by forcing their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary just before the election is not fair.

Large corporations that have free access to the public airwaves should not abuse their power by using it in a partisan manner.

The FCC should step in and show that this kind of behavior is unacceptable by preventing Sinclair Broadcasting from forcing such content on their stations.

Thank you.